The wages for Local Fund Workers has to be met out from different heads of the Local Fund as the sufficient funds are not available in a single head. Besides the Higher Education Department has not barred any of the colleges of J&K to stop this practice as the college has no option to draw their wages from any other source other than from the different heads of the Local Fund which. Hence para may be dropped.

Subject: Audit Inspection Report on the accounts of the Principal GDC, Kilam for the period 10-2015 to 11-2020-reply thereof.

Sir,

With reference to the above quoted subject, the Para wise reply of the Audit Inspection Report is given below for further necessary action at your end.

Para 1: Review of Local Fund-unutilized balance of Rs. 6.16 lakh & loss of revenue to the extent of Rs. 1.57 lakh thereof.

Reply: This college has maintained the Budget Guard and the Day book which includes all the heads of activity reflecting the receipts and expenditure from which the balances of a particular fund can be ascertained at the close of the financial year. This office has maintained a single Cash Book because of the fact that we have only 500 odd admissions and the amount in each head is not too much to maintain a separate Cash Book for each head. Regarding the slow pace in utilizing the local funds, it is to mention that the due to COVID-19 the funds in the local fund account could not be utilized. Funds from hereafter shall be utilized as per the recommendations of the audit inspection team.

Regarding the purchase of computers from interest amount, as the college being newly established was desperately in need computers on war footing basis. Further the NAAC inspection was also scheduled in the month of June-2019 and funds were also not available. In future this practice shall not be repeated. Moreover wages for Local Fund Workers have to be drawn from different heads of Local Fund as the amount in particular head is not sufficient to draw wages from it.

It is in place to mention that a separate Cash Books for each head will be maintained henceforth.

Recalculation of the fee has been done and the exact fee has been charged from each student from the academic session 2021-22. Hence Para may be dropped.

Para-2: Irregular purchase of books worth Rs. 11.96 lakh.

The College has purchased books from the publishers who are members
